Door & Window Replacement Financing

Here at Peach Building Products, we pride ourselves in bringing the very best in windows, doors, and countless other home improvements to our community. We offer over 25 years of experience in designing and installing the most unique and custom home features in the area. Throughout this time, our competitive financing options have made the home improvement dreams of countless people come true. Financing one of these projects can feel a bit harrowing, but with our transparent and cost-effective financing programs, you will have those dream renovations without breaking the bank.

Financing Home Renovations

If you are waiting until you have all the necessary funds to put those new windows in, there is a decent chance it will never happen. But with Peach Building Products' extremely competitive financing options, those beautiful new windows can be a reality even with a current lack of funds. Those builder grade windows probably need replacing, and we have the highest quality products to do it. The best part: immediate and long-lasting enjoyment of high-quality windows without breaking the bank! This enjoyment manifests itself in lower energy bills, far less street noise permeating your home, and a fresh new look. One of our financing specialists will work with you and your budget to find the absolute best program for your situation. Options range from no interest financing to long term programs with low rates. Are you looking to make other additions, such as patio enclosures, sunrooms, and skylights? Well we have amazing financing programs for those projects too!

Many of your friends have probably gotten the loans from the bank or endured the crazy interest rates of a credit card to make their home improvements. But when you finance directly with us, you will save hundreds while enjoying the smoothest home improvement process imaginable. Our most popular financing program consists of a 60-month term, in which no interest is accrued if it is fully paid within the 60 months. Throughout the life of this financing program, you will not only enjoy the hundreds that you save without interest, but also the hundreds more that you will save on your power bills, maintenance on your HVAC units, and greater equity in your home.

Questar Rebates

As a listed Questar dealer, Peach Building Products can also offer you amazing rebates on select windows! As if the hundreds saved on incredible financing programs and reduced power bills was not incentive enough, homeowners can also enjoy a rebate of $2.50 per square foot installed. This makes getting those beautiful new windows more realistic than ever before! The rebate only applies to our highest efficiency, triple pane windows and doors with a U-value of 0.22 or less. In talking with our financing and design teams, you will be made fully aware of the specifics of this rebate and our financing programs so you can make the best decision possible.
